Big Idea: Know the win;
it's their heart.

What are some things that make you trust someone?

In the movie Spiderman, when challenged with the idea he had a trust issue, the newspaper editor says 'I trust my barber.' Who are some people you trust?

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

The message from last weekend had the Big Idea of 'Know the win; it's their heart'. The idea is to build trust by loving and building relations. 1 Corinthians 13 has some key principles of what true love is.

1. 1 Corinthians 13: 4
What conditions should our love have?
What could be some practical things to help us be patient, especially when others are irritating?
2. 1 Corinthians 13: 4
How can feeling happy for what others have and do help us to not be envious? What are some practical ways to do this?
How can being willing to say we were wrong help us to not be proud?
3. 1 Corinthians 13: 5
What happens to trust when we seek to win the argument at the expense of someone else?
In what ways could selfishness erode trust in a relationship?
How can we put others first, but not be taken advantage of?

4. 1 Corinthians 13: 5
Have you ever done anything in anger that jeopardized someone's trust in you?
What could be some examples of how others anger jeopardized your trust in them?
What practical ways have you found to control your anger?

5. 1 Corinthians 13: 5
Has anyone constantly reminded you of all the wrongs you have done? How has that affected your trust with that person?
What are some ways that you could go about forgiving someone for the things they have done wrong?
What would you say is the balance between forgiving and correcting a wrong?

6. 1 Corinthians 13: 6
How can we know what the truth is?
It is said that we get the things we celebrate. How can we celebrate the truth?
What are some things we should stay away from and have our family stay away from so evil will be less likely to come into our lives?

7. 1 Corinthians 13: 7
What are some ways we can protect our family?
How can we show our trust to our family?
Why is perseverance important in our relationships?

Challenge:

Spend some time thinking about the following questions. Discuss them with your spouse or someone you trust.

- What was I going after in our last few arguments?
- Do I try to build trust or constantly expect them to earn my trust?
- Does my love look like the list in 1 Corinthians 13: 4 – 7?
- How can I begin to fight for their heart?
